

Success Stories: Lizz Meldrum

“I’m doing what I love,” says Liz, “playing with clay and bones. With BCAL’s support, I’m fulfilling my dreams. They’ve given me the confidence to have a go. The Ballerina is beautiful and will not let the oddness stop her from living her life,” Liz wrote in her artist’s Statement, “instead of just existing because society won’t see her as the ‘typical’ ballerina.” Liz’s life is full of art: her art class with Lisa Ovejero at BCAL, ceramics and lino printing with Lyn Keating at Bena, and Tuesday craft classes with Sarah Sullivan at Loch. Get the full story at

<https://www.basscoastpost.com/arts/the-line-of-beauty>

Gorgeous George and Lizz at home on the farm

The Ballerina, air dried clay and bones by Lizz Meldrum.